The Administrator's Shoe

started off beyond our expectations which convinces us that the people of Barre and vicinity appreciate such bargains in footwear as we are offering. Many look forward to our sales because when we have a sale they know it is a real one, and we have tried to have this the best and largest of any we have ever had as it means a great deal to us to have the cash at this time for we must reduce every dollar possible by February 1, and by helping yourselves to the bargains we are offering you will help us at the same time, which we will appreciate very much. Look over these items and see if you cannot save money by coming here and let us show you the best of goods made at a big cut in price.
